The purpose of this website is to provide resources, insights and connections for churches and Church Leaders in Christchurch. While all care is taken in sourcing the information and we continue to maintain and update the site and its information, we can't guarantee the information is always accurate. We rely upon the Body of Christ to help us keep the information accurate and up-to-date.

If you find anything that is out-of-date or inaccurate, please contact us – we appreciate the feedback.

Any images you find on our website cannot be used for other web-pages, social media, or public forums without the permission of Te Raranga.

To provide any feedback, corrections, or missing information, please email us at: office@TeRaranga.org.nz
